

NOVEMBER 2018

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

COLOUR FIELD CASA
Artists' polychrome home near Como

BEYOND FASHION
Pierre Bergé and
Yves Saint Laurent's
timeless Tangier retreat

From left: 'Broken Mirror', by Snarkitecture, £4,450 approx, Gufram. 'Babylon' light/side table, by Harry Paul, £298, Dedon. 'Pink Lady' sofa, by Studio 65, £5,775 approx, Gufram. 'Julep' armchair, Jonas Wagell for Tacchini, £2,410, Silvera. Terracotta-and-metal 'Materia Mater' console table, £4,000 approx per unit, Architetti Artigiani Anonimi. 'The Others' floor lamp, by Stephen Burks, £1,074; with interchangeable set of decorative eyes, by Stephen Burks, £496; both Dedon. Large 'Futuristic Flowers' sculpture, by Giacomo Balla, £3,470 approx; 'Marcel' armchair, by Kazuhide Takahama, £3,740 approx; 'Marcel' pouf, by Kazuhide Takahama, £1,600 approx; all Paradisoterrestre. 'Viola' dining table, £2,850 approx, Victoria Episcopo. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book ▷

SEASONED IN THE SUN

Europe's largest salt flats stretch out for miles along the Adriatic coast in Puglia, and the marshes nearby are an important stop-over for many migratory birds, including pink flamingoes. Other rare species, first seen at the Milan furniture fair, are perched in the processing plant's crystalline wilderness – here Jessica Hayns has captured their beautiful plumage. Production assistant: Viola Lanari. Photography: Bill Batten

